POLICY STATEMENT

All students and employees at Rivermount College have the right to learn and work in an environment free from sexual harassment. The College will provide a fair and safe learning and teaching environment where all students and employees have equal opportunities.

The College is committed to taking action to protect students and employees from sexual harassment and to responding appropriately should such behaviour occur, including possible discipline. Any instances of sexual harassment should be reported under the College Complaints Handling Policy and Procedure.

In particular, and in accordance with the legislation, it is College policy that:

- An employee must not sexually harass anyone including another employee, a student (existing or potential) or a student at another school.
- An adult student<sup>1</sup> must not sexually harass another student or employee or a student or employee at another school.

DEFINITIONS

Sexual harassment is any unwelcome and uninvited comment, attention, contact or behaviour of a sexual nature, that an individual or witness finds humiliating, offensive or intimidating. It can be verbal, physical, written or visual.

Sexual harassment has nothing to do with mutual attraction or consenting friendships.

A person sexually harasses another person if:

- a) the person makes an unwelcome sexual advance, or an unwelcome request for sexual favours, to the person harassed; or
- b) engages in other unwelcome conduct of a sexual nature in relation to the person harassed;
- c) in circumstances in which a reasonable person, having regard to all the circumstances, would have anticipated the possibility that the person harassed would be offended, humiliated or intimidated.

Sexual harassment can take various forms and may be obvious or indirect, physical or verbal.

Examples of Sexual Harassment may include:

- the distribution or display of offensive pictures or written material, including by electronic distribution
- repeated unwelcome requests for social outings or dates

- offensive comments about a person's physical appearance, dress or private life
- jokes, intrusive questioning, messages or telephone calls of a sexual nature
- direct propositioning or subtle pressure for sexual favours
- leering, patting, pinching, touching or unnecessary familiarity
- indecent exposure, sexual assault or rape
- spreading rumours about someone's sex life

Some forms of sexual harassment, such as assault, physical molestation, stalking, sexual assault and indecent exposure, are also criminal offences and should be reported to the police.

Sexual Harassment may occur:

- between students
- between staff members and students - from a staff member to a student or from a student to a staff member.
- between staff members
- from a visitor/contractor or to a visitor/contractor of the College.

Anyone may be sexually harassed, but it happens more to girls than boys.

Sexual Harassment can cause:

- poor study performance
- academic results that do not reflect ability or effort
- absenteeism due to stress
- loss of self-confidence or self-esteem

How Do I know If My Behaviour Is Causing Offence?

Sexual harassment is often unintended. If you are not sure about your behaviour, you can:

- carefully watch the effect of your actions and words on other people and consider whether they are really appreciating your behaviour or just pretending to because they are embarrassed.
- check your behaviour and language by asking if it is offensive or inappropriate.
- stop behaving in that way.
- apologise, if you are in doubt.
- always treat other people as equals instead of as possible objects of sexual attention.
- discuss your behaviour with someone who has an understanding of the issues.

Victimisation

A person is victimised if threatened, harassed, harmed or subjected to any form of detriment.

In relation to sexual harassment it is against the law to victimise a person who:

- has made a complaint
- intends to make a complaint
- acts as a witness
- intends to act as a witness
- supports a victim
- intends to support a victim

What Can You Do If Your Child Is Being Sexually Harassed

Listen to your child - don't treat the matter lightly. Your child has the right to a safe and secure learning environment.

If you believe that your child is being sexually harassed, there are several options available.

- if the person harassing your child is another student, your child may be prepared to tell the offender to stop the behaviour.
- if the behaviour does not stop after an approach has been made or if your child does not wish to approach the offender or if the offender is an adult, you and your child could talk to a teacher at the College about the situation. Alternatively, you may prefer to talk to someone in the College you know and with whom you feel comfortable.
- you and/or your child may make a formal complaint.

Making a Complaint

If you are concerned about sexual harassment of your child and wish to make a complaint, you may, at any stage, inform the staff members listed above or refer to the College's Complaints Handling Policy and Procedure for information to make a formal complaint. Your complaint will be taken seriously and handled confidentially.

What Will Happen If A Formal Complaint Is Made?

At all times, confidentiality will be maintained. The complaint will be investigated following documented procedures and both sides of the case will be considered.

Sometimes the matter can be settled confidentially at the initial stage, especially if the offender is unaware of the inappropriate behaviour and its effects.

IMPLEMENTATION

The College takes reasonable steps to prevent sexual harassment including the establishment of this policy and its regular promotion via staff professional development days and at student assemblies. Students are regularly reminded to speak to a College Counsellor or senior management if they feel sexually harassed or unsafe in any way.

COMPLIANCE AND MONITORING

The College utilises the Complaints Handling Policy & Procedure to address sexual harassment complaints and keep appropriate records. Complaints will be monitored by the College's Executive Management Team. The College will report any criminal offences to the police.
