THE HANK YOUNG FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION FORM

The Hank Young Foundation provides educational scholarships to students of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander descent. The value of each scholarship is determined by the individual's application and current financial circumstances. The scholarship will cover a percentage cost of tuition fees only at Rivermount College. All other expenses associated with a student's enrolment will be the responsibility of parents/guardians. Applicants must have received an offer of enrolment from Rivermount College prior to a scholarship being awarded

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF SCHOLARSHIP

Applicants in receipt of an Indigenous Scholarship from The Hank Young Foundation are required to:

- Adhere to the Code of Behaviour of Rivermount College
- Participate in the co-curricular activities of Rivermount College
- Maintain a satisfactory academic and attendance record
- Pay all costs and/or outstanding debts incurred at Rivermount College
- Advise The Hank Young Foundation of any changes that may affect the Scholarship

The Scholarship that is awarded to students attending Rivermount College is for the duration of their enrolment at the school providing the student abides by the terms and conditions stated above.

Siblings attending will not automatically receive a scholarship. A separate Scholarship application form is required per student upon enrolment.
